++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rain and snow clear overnight. Dry tomorrow before rain later.

This Evening and Tonight:
Any remaining rain and snow will slowly clear eastwards through this evening, leaving generally dry conditions for most overnight. A few spots of drizzle will still occur over the hills though. Staying mostly cloudy and occasionally gusty by the coast. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Wednesday:
A largely dry and cloudy day, with any drizzle clearing during the morning. Winds will be light throughout and persistent rain will arrive from the southwest during the evening. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Rainfall throughout on Thursday, but turning wintry in the east, falling as snow down to lower elevations. Drier into Friday, though some showers will continue. Dry, bright and cold Saturday.
